

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE –

September 8, 2008

Contact: David G. Monderer

Telephone: (239) 728-6888

Email: dmonderer@doyleresolution.com

SOUTHWEST FLORIDA MEDIATOR TO SPEAK AND CONDUCT WORKSHOP AT CONFERENCE

David Monderer, Fort Myers, Florida consultant and certified mediator, will be a featured speaker at the Corporate Dealmaker Forum in New York City on October 2 and 3. Mr. Monderer will conduct a half day workshop for corporate executives, private equity professionals and attorneys working in the field of mergers and acquisitions. The workshop, entitled “Fundamentals of Divestiture: How to Divest Like the Best” will concentrate on preparing for the sale of a corporate operating division or business and the issues that will be encountered.

Mr. Monderer, a retired Vice President of Eastman Kodak Company was responsible for Kodak’s business development activity and over 200 merger transactions totaling more than $9B as part of Kodak’s successful transformation to a digital imaging company. He is a frequent writer for trade journals and speaker at industry conferences.

For further information on the conference, please see

<http://www.thedeal.com/marketing/events/newyork2008/index.html>

Doyle Conflict Resolution is a mediation and alternative dispute resolution firm, providing services designed to meet the needs of businesses throughout the State of Florida. Mediation is the most common dispute resolution process, but there are many models for conflict resolution. Doyle Conflict Resolution provides a panel of dispute resolution professionals with both litigation expertise and Fortune 500 business experience. The firm works to find an effective way for businesses and their counsel to confidently seek the best possible resolution of a dispute without unnecessary expense or delay.

-30-

For more information, visit Doyle Conflict Resolution's web site at www.DoyleResolution.com or phone (239) 728-6888.